Eighteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading: Ecclesiastes 1. 2, 2.21-23
Second Reading: Colossians 3. 1-5, 9-11
Gospel: Luke 12. 13-21

We are invited to share our blessings with others. The parable of the rich fool gives us a warning as well as an invitation. It reminds us that our possessions are merely lent to us by God, and that we are accountable for their use. We must be generous in sharing our time, our treasure, and our talents, the three elements of Christian stewardship. Every one of us is rich in one thing or another. The parable instructs us to share these gifts. Even if we are poor financially, we may be blessed with intelligence, good will, a sense of humor or the ability to encourage, inspire and support others. God expects us to give our thanks to Him for all these blessings by sharing them with others for His glory. Giving God the first fruits of our labors, not the meager leftovers, is a traditional way of becoming "rich in what matters to God."

The Mass: Session Five

Session five of Bishop Barron's The Mass series will be this Sunday, Aug. 4th, after the 9am Mass. Everyone is encouraged to join us as we delve into the mystery of the Eucharist in these last two videos. If you've ever wondered what makes the Mass unique compared to any other religious service, Bishop Barron will be explaining the special significance of the Eucharist and why it makes all the difference. Coffee and snacks will be provided.

Volunteer Opportunity

The Parish is looking for someone to prepare the weekly bulletin. It takes approximately 20-30minutes a week and minimal computer knowledge. If you think that you could help our parish in this capacity or are interested in more information please talk to Fr. Cecil or Christina Dansereau (crdansereau@gmail.com 250-683-9439)
